

WASHINGTON “ Congressman John W. Olver announced today that the Veterans Hospice Ho

œOutpatient care is becoming more and more important to veterans as they get older and mor

The mobile service center will provide expedient quality care for veterans who are unable to or

The mobile service center will reach out to homeless veterans by networking with local and are

There are approximately 9,000 veterans residing in Leominster and Fitchburg area. The Centra œProviding accessible medical services to our nations veterans should be one of our top priori

###